

EXTENSIVE BUILDING

NATHAN RIGDON IS AT WORK ON THREE HOMES AT DORAN AND CENTRAL

Glendale—the city of homes! That statement has never been of more significance or had a truer meaning than it has now.

Many new homes are being constructed in Glendale. Perhaps the most extensive work is being done by Mr. Nathan Rigdon, a recent arrival from San Diego and an ardent booster of Glendale.

Mr. Rigdon has purchased from Mr. Dow, of Orange Avenue, eight lots on Doran Street between Central Avenue and Orange, and has begun work on three homes, one of which is practically completed. He and his family will live in this house which faces Doran Street on the corner of Central Avenue. It is a two-story house of ten rooms, the value of which will be in the neighborhood of $14,000 when completed.

These homes will have a feature which is rather new, yet very practical. This is the use of electricity exclusively. The home nearest completion is equipped with an automatic electric water heater, an electric cook stove costing two hundred dollars, and an electric washing machine. The rooms are furnished with electric heaters, which are built in the wall. Another feature of worthy mention is the use of hollow tile in the construction of these buildings, making them fireproof.

Previous to this coming here, Mr. Rigdon was a builder and designer in San Diego, where he has built about two hundred homes.

J. V. McELWEE HERE

Among the recent arrivals in Glendale is J. V. McElwee, a son of F. B. McElwee, of this city.

J. V. McElwee is down from San Francisco on his vacation, visiting Mrs. Mary Griggs of 430 Pioneer Drive. He has been in the employ of the government for the past five years with the Interstate Commerce Commission as an engineer. He has been working on the preliminary survey of the railroads in the United States. This work has just been completed.

He will be a guest of Mrs. Griggs until after Christmas, when he expects to return to San Francisco.

BERRY-FRITZ

Russell Berry, son of Mrs. Linda H. Berry of 417 North Jackson Street and his bride have just returned from a honeymoon at Santa Barbara. The bride before her marriage was Miss Lulu Fritz, a young artist of Los Angeles. They were married last Thursday in Trinity Auditorium by Dr. Locke, and they are now at home to their friends in an apartment at the Acacia Arms, Los Angeles.

END OF THE WORLD

WILL NOT COME BECAUSE PLANETS ARE IN CONJUNCTION, BUT FOR SPIRITUAL REASONS, SAYS ELDER SNYDER

"This old world will not come to an end because Jupiter, Saturn and other planets are in conjunction with it, but because its inhabitants are out of alignment with God's character," was the statement of Elder George A. Snyder, of Alhambra, before the Seventh-day Adventist congregation, assembled at the Intermediate grammar school last Saturday morning.

Speaking of the principles of religious liberty, he said: "The exercise of force is contrary to the principles of God's government. He desires only the service of love, which can not be commanded, nor won by compulsion."

"From the time that sin entered the world, every provision has been made, which if accepted, would anchor every soul safely. But in the same period of time, few have availed themselves of the means of salvation; and since choice is the highest prerogative of man, none are forced to accept even salvation."

"In all His dealings, God is first, last and always, Love. When the wicked are blotted from the earth, eventually, it will not be an arbitrary act of God, but the result of their own course of action. No true parent delights to punish his child, nor deliberately plans periodical chastisement. The child's own course of action determines the inevitable result—punishment or reward."

SOME SPEED

TENNESSEANS LOSE NO TIME IN ESTABLISHING THEMSELVES IN GLENDALE

That there is nothing slow about Tennesseans was demonstrated a few days ago by the latest additions to the colony from Kidgey, Tenn., which is reaching large proportions. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Riley arrived in Glendale Saturday morning. Without loss of time they purchased a house on East Windsor Road, opposite that of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart. The Public Service Department at once made connections. As they had brought no furniture or other household equipment with them, they made the rounds of the stores of our city buying everything needed with which to go to housekeeping, from silver spoons and table linen to cook stoves. Because they had made their purchases here where merchants are all interested in smoothing the way for new comers, deliveries were promptly made and during the afternoon hours the house was almost surrounded with trucks and delivery carts bringing their purchases. When the shades of night shut out their view of the mountains they were cozily established and ready to receive their friends.

ROBERT LEHMAN IN REQUEST

Mrs. C. A. Lehman and little son Robert have just returned from Santa Ana where Robert has been filling an engagement at the Santa Ana theatre. While there they saw Mr. and Mrs. Pelley, who are very much pleased with Santa Ana as a business point, but are nevertheless homesick for Glendale. Robert Lehman will be on the program at one of the Los Angeles theatres this week. He is getting a reputation as an entertainer and is booked ahead for engagements at Riverside and other California cities. He is arranging for a tutor to enable him to keep up his school work. Mrs. Lehman will probably go east with him in the spring.

SCHOOL CANTATA

Pupils of the Seventh-day Adventist Intermediate School are this evening giving a Christmas Cantata entitled "The Search for a King." It will be under the direction of the teachers of the school, Ernestine Wheatley, Delpha Miller and Frank Smith, and solo parts will be taken by Clinton Burrows, John Dew, Lolita Simpson, Percy Christian, Cecil Chrisman, Cyril Hess, Louis Odom, Harold Cummings, Hervey Christian, Ralph Meyers, Kenneth Kester, Bernice Hollister, Ruth Rombeau. The chorus work will be done by the various grades or the full school.

MILFORD STREET CARD CLUB

The Milford Card Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Hosford on Central Avenue. It was a Christmas party and instead of the regular prizes the hostess had provided a hoop or Christmas wreath from which twelve gifts were suspended that were bestowed according to drawings at the end of the afternoon. Mrs. White as winner of high score having the first draw. All the gifts were useful household articles. The Hosford house was prettily decorated with Christmas greenery and refreshments were served at the close of play.

PRIMARY PARTY

CHILDREN OF GLENDAL PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL ENJOY TREAT

The Christmas exercises of the primary department of the Glendale Presbyterian Sunday School which took place Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church bungalow, were attended by about seventy-five children and many mothers. The bungalow had been attractively decorated for the occasion with Christmas greenery and poinsettias, the decorations centering in a handsome Christmas tree hung with Christmas stockings containing popcorn, candy and other goodies, one for each child. The program with which the afternoon opened included a song by Helen Jefferson, recitations by Edith Howe and Mabel Harrison, a Christmas story told by Miss Mary McDill, and a fine Christmas talk by Dr. Edmunds. The children then received their Christmas stockings and the mothers were served with punch and cake by Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Wilkinson who, with other teachers, assisted Miss Zenith Sinclair, superintendent of the department.

MUST SIGN PROTOCOL FIRST

GERMAN DELEGATION LEAVES PARIS FOR BERLIN TO GET INSTRUCTIONS FROM GERMAN GOVERNMENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Dec. 23.—The Allies today submitted to the German peace delegation a formal note insisting that Germany sign the protocol first and allow the allies to consider modifications afterwards.

The German delegation told Secretary Dutasta of the peace conference that it would be necessary to get instructions personally from Berlin. The entire German delegation will leave for Berlin tonight. They insisted that their departure did not mean a break in negotiations.

SECRETARY DANIELS UNDER FIRE

CHARGES OF FAVORITISM IN AWARDED DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDALS TO BE INVESTIGATED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Investigation of charges that Secretary Daniels showed favoritism in awarding distinguished medals and disregarded the recommendations of high naval officials, was started today. Admiral Simms refused to accept a medal from the Secretary, which precipitated the investigation.

Representative Lufkin of Massachusetts said that as soon as Congress reconvened he would introduce a resolution asking Secretary Daniels to report on the awards of naval medals. He promised the House naval committee that he would probe the matter completely.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND

BRITISH PLAN FINDS DISFAVOR IN IRELAND; GREETED WITH ENTHUSIASM IN ENGLAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, Ireland, Dec. 23.—The Irish press is unanimous today in declaring that the British government's scheme of home rule for Ireland is impracticable and unworkable. Apparently there wasn't a single phase of the government's plan as outlined by Premier Lloyd George which was acceptable.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The London press today generally greeted Premier Lloyd George's Irish home rule plan enthusiastically.

INSANITY OF HARRY S. NEW

BASIS OF DEFENSE TO BE MADE BY HIS ATTORNEYS IN EFFORT TO FREE HIM FROM MURDER CHARGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—Slowly the past life of Harry S. New, with occasional references to his mother, Mrs. Lily Berger and United States Senator Harry S. New of Indianapolis, was being laid bare when court adjourned this morning. The groundwork of the insanity defense by which his attorneys hope to free New from the charge of murdering Freda Lesser, was being laid. Depositions read at the morning session were brief, and they were mostly from men with whom New had worked. One discussed New's alleged attachment for rattlesnakes. Most of them emphasized the claim that he was of a peculiar nature speaking little and brooding much, presumably on the circumstances of his birth. New sat in the courtroom stolid and unsmiling almost as though he did not hear the things said about him.

Just before the court opened Judge Craig received an anonymous letter from Detroit saying New did not murder Miss Lesser but that it was done by a third party.

The defense sprung its first surprise shortly after court convened. Interrupting the reading of depositions, Mrs. Dana Condon was called to the witness stand to impeach the testimony of Mrs. E. L. Sanner. Mrs. Sanner had testified that New told her at dinner at a cafe that he mistrusted Freda and asked if she would help out Miss Lesser if the girl was in trouble. Mrs. Condon testified that on the night Mrs. Sanner had claimed to have dined with New, that New and his sister, Miss Clanin, were guests at her father's home at 6:30 and until 11 p. m. This testimony was considered the most telling blow yet delivered by the defense. It created a sensation in the courtroom as great importance had been attached to Mrs. Sanner's testimony.

PRESIDENT WILL MAKE CONCESSIONS

SENATOR HITCHCOCK SAYS HE WILL ACCEPT CERTAIN RESERVATIONS TO ARTICLE TEN BUT NOT LODGE'S

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, said today that he believed the President is willing to accept treaty reservations on Article Ten of the League of Nations covenant which would give Congress the right to decide whether the United States is under obligations to use military forces to maintain the integrity of other nations. Hitchcock emphasized, however, that President Wilson would not accept Senator Lodge's reservations to Article Ten.

Monday afternoon a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter was held in the headquarters on Brand Boulevard, with Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman, presiding. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, also the financial statement showing receipts and expenditures of the previous month and balance in the treasury. A proposition to make a Christmas donation of $250 to the Glendale Post of the American Legion to be used in furnishing its headquarters was then brought up and members voted, unanimously to instruct the officers to draw a check for that amount and present it to the Glendale Post.

The balance of the time was devoted to an informal discussion of the work of the chapter, which, in obedience to the request of the Pacific Division that it furnish one suit a month for service men discharged from hospitals, has provided four good suits and some separate garments which have been most gratefully received and acknowledged in letters of appreciation from the hospital at Palo Alto and the Pacific Division.

COMING WEDDING

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ENGAGEMENT OF MISS DOROTHY LEE AND FRANK C. WELLER

At an informal affair given Monday, December 22, at 345 North Belmont Street, in honor of her cousin, Miss Genevieve Gannaway of Spokane, Wash., Miss Dorothy Lee surprised her friends by making the afternoon the occasion of the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Frank C. Weller, a Los Angeles attorney. The first part of the afternoon was spent in fancy work, music and visiting, followed by the game of buncle. Instead of awarding the customary winners' prize, each guest was presented with a package from the lighted Christmas tree, containing a dainty handkerchief which held the card revealing the secret. Refreshments, with hearts as the predominating feature, were then served and the guests were told that the wedding was to take place in the near future. The invited guests, nearly all of whom were former high school and college friends of Miss Lee, were: The Misses Fern McCleery and Louise Brewer, of Pasadena, Jenny Lacy and Eva Bradway, of Los Angeles; Frances Payne of Bakersfield, Vera Holloway of Phoenix, Ariz., Alice McCoy, Catherine Sisson, Margaret Lusby, Wainita Emery, Bess Moore, Inez Harrison, Betty Gregg, Gladys Justema, and the Mesdames Harold Salisbury, Raymond Lusby, Seymour Smith, Marian Webb, all of Glendale, and Mrs. Howard Lennox of Van Nuys.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ed M. Lee, and aunts, Mrs. Emma Miltonberger of Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs. H. G. Way of Omaha, Neb.

GIVES DEMONSTRATION

INSTRUCTIVE TALKS HEARD BY RANCHERS AT RADCLIFFE FARM

The spraying of deciduous fruit trees was discussed and demonstrated yesterday afternoon at a regular meeting of the Glendale-Burbank Farm Bureau Center held on John D. Radcliffe's 54-acre farm northwest of Glendale.

A group of fifty to sixty farmers and their friends, grouped around the spraying rig, heard a very interesting and instructive talk on spraying given by Robert W. Hodgson, farm advisor for Los Angeles county. Mr. Hodgson emphasized the fact that losses to fruit growers can be controlled by simple spraying operations. Two tree diseases were discussed: The California peach blight and shot hole of the apricot. According to Mr. Hodgson, these diseases can be controlled, averted and checked by fall and winter sprayings. The peach blight first appears with (Continued on Page 6)

CHANGE OF SITE

H. M. BUTTS ADDS TO PREVIOUS ARGUMENTS FOR NEW H. S. LOCATION

Since the publishing of my first letter regarding the High School question in your issue of December 12th, I have been pleased to note the interest manifested through your paper and otherwise, concerning this important subject.

To the extent that interest is shown I am pleased, for with interest awakened in any public undertaking we may hope to accomplish something worth while. Stagnation of interest works the same havoc in the community as it does in the individual.

It is indeed a satisfaction to know that my views are understood, appreciated and endorsed by some. By others they are appreciated and approved, but not endorsed as expedient, while others, of course, directly oppose.

I certainly appreciate Mr. Slater's concise and interesting letter of the 17th. He takes up matters in detail relating to conditions and occurrences in Glendale several years before my arrival here, and his account of the evolution of our own High School together with the location of similar institutions in neighboring towns and cities, lends strength to my contention that the present site is not the proper one.

Many real friends of the idea of the change of location falter at the attempt, for they can not see any possible way to unload what we already have. In my previous letter I ventured some suggestions. They may not seem practical or possible of attainment.

Glendale needs a modern hotel. Could not the Domestic Arts building be so utilized? Would not the park setting be duly appreciated for such an enterprise? Could not the Mechanical Arts building be made into a splendid enclosed swimming pool? The main building, I still believe, should be converted into an auditorium, together with recital halls and, possibly, business offices.

In this connection I wish to call attention to the fact that the proposed High School auditorium with a seating capacity of 2500, could never be used for any entertainment. (Continued on Page 3)

CHRISTMAS SERVICES

NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED AT CENTRAL METHODIST CHURCH—SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Sunday services at the Central Avenue Methodist Church were of unusual interest. Following the sermon eleven new members were received into the church, a very satisfactory part of the Christmas celebration. A vesper service at 5 o'clock took the place of the customary evening service. At that time a Christmas cantata was given by the Pico Heights Methodist Church choir, composed of thirty-five singers, Stanley Vermilyea, tenor, and Mr. Kline, bass. The church was completely filled and the music was greatly enjoyed.

Following the cantata Will Hewitt, who is now a teacher in the Bakersfield public schools, gave a stereopticon lecture on his war experiences. It will be remembered that he was in the photographic branch of the aeroplane service and the illustrations he showed were some of his own pictures which were exceedingly interesting. He also gave considerable information about air photography, which was very enlightening. The church was packed for this lecture and between the two services the local choir entertained the choir of the Pico Heights Church with a supper before they left to take part in the services at their own church.

Those received into the church at the morning service were: Mrs. Marion Smith, the pastor's wife; Mrs. Jessie Hunt, Misses Ruth, Jessie and Wilma Hunt, Misses Mary and Anna Merriken, Miss Eleanor Kopp, Miss Emma King, Miriam and Alberta Wallace.

OPPORTUNITY FOR GLENDALE MERCHANTS

Opportunity is knocking at the door of the Glendale business man. Everything points to greater activity in business lines in Glendale if the merchants are only alive to the situation. In the first place strangers are coming here, the population is increasing by leaps and bounds all of which tends to make better business conditions. Los Angeles is filled with tourists and new residents, the congestion in the larger city on the streets, in the cars and in the stores is almost unbearable and many Glendale people who formerly did most of their buying in Los Angeles have turned to the Glendale merchants and are learning that they can do as well here along certain lines as they can in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles city ordinance which goes into effect January 1 and which prohibits the parking of automobiles in the business section will be another incentive for Glendale people to do their buying in Glendale.

It is up to the Glendale merchants to see that his stocks are such as will attract and to let the people of Glendale know that he is in business and how he can serve them.

PROHIBITION NOTE

Health conditions throughout the United States have greatly improved during the last year, says Surgeon General Rupert Blue, head of public health service.

This improvement, he said, is due in part to prohibition and to the lessons of hygiene learned in the war. Relief from war strain also helped reduce sickness, he believes.

Only a small number of Spanish influenza cases are being reported. Latest reports to the surgeon general from all sections of the country, he said, show the death rate to be below the average.

ADVENTIST NOTES

NEW OFFICERS FOR LOCAL CHURCH TO BE ELECTED. GENERAL PROSPERITY REPORTED

The election committee appointed to prepare a slate of new officers for the coming year for the Seventh-day Adventist church, has submitted its report which Pastor Munson is confident will be adopted and the election will take place next Sunday. The report calls for a number of changes in the personnel of the church board. L. A. Ford, who is not in active ministry now and who was formerly with the Review and Herald Publishing Company of Washington, D. C., but is now living in Glendale, has been named as first elder, Dr. W. A. Johnson as second elder, and Dr. C. A. Burrows as third elder.

Pastor Munson says that the church is growing rapidly by accessions from other places through the movement of populations, this being a central location and favorable climate. The Glendale Sanitarium, he says, is full with a waiting list and has never experienced such prosperity as it is enjoying at the present time. The institution is faced by the necessity of providing new dormitories for its nurses and also providing class rooms and other facilities for the training school. A new class is to start January 10th and the Sanitarium is embarrassed for lack of accommodations. The church school building that was used for class purposes was taken away when the church was moved and is now a part of the equipment of the church school. This necessitates new buildings and equipment at the Sanitarium. The crowded condition of the Sanitarium is due in part to the fact that a good many Glendale physicians are now taking patients there, as the most cordial relations exist between the institution and the professional men of the city.

Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, is attending meetings of the auditing committees of the California Conference and the Northern California Conference this week. Meetings are held every year to audit labor accounts. He will be back in a day or two.

The Pacific Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists is planning to transfer its offices December 31st to their new location at the corner of Broadway and Isabel over the Glendale Hardware Store. The rooms have been nicely fitted up and are nearly ready for occupancy.

CHANGE OF SITE

ments where admission is charged other than those of the school itself. With an auditorium owned by the city, however, we could have everything desired and the High School would only need their assembly hall.

I make these suggestions as to change of location and utilization of the present plant for what they may be worth and will not dwell upon them further just now. But as to the other issue: as to whether or not the High School should acquire the Brand Boulevard frontage, I have something to say. I shall say it in the interest of the city's business center and in the interest of the High School as well.

It is generally admitted that a solidly built, unbroken business section is the most attractive from every point of view, and it can be easily seen that could all Glendale's business houses be located in one locality, our fine little city would make a far better showing.

It is also evident that a street naturally dedicated to business purposes, as is Brand Boulevard, loses its efficiency to the extent that it is broken by public buildings such as churches and schools. Parks, also, are not conducive to the success of general commercial establishment across the street from them, as a rule.

I believe it has been conclusively shown that should the school acquire the Brand frontage, Brand Boulevard as a business street would be mutilated. Consequently, in this instance Glendale's business interests would suffer, with but doubtful benefit to the High School.

I say doubtful benefit advisedly, for according to my views of the matter, when we take into consideration the fact that the present buildings were built facing Harvard, I doubt if the required additional buildings could be so arranged and constructed as to give the architectural group effect so absolutely essential if we wish to show the observant, critical visitor something that will receive his unqualified approval—something that will not leave upon his mind even the slightest unpleasant impression either as to its practical or perspective effort.

What we really want, first of all, is valuable, effective education.

That education can be more effective and better to the extent that it is made attractive, is not to be gainsaid. That there is a higher, finer something to be attained through harmony of surroundings will be appreciated by those who understand. It is indeed difficult for me to see any such harmony of surroundings attainable where the school is now located and as years go by the incongruity will become more and more apparent.

How different this all could be were a new location chosen with due regard to general architectural effect and ultimate surroundings—where the general "lay of the land" would preclude the encroachment of the undesirable. Although other attractive sites undoubtedly exist, I may be excused for again referring to the one which so much appeals to me, viz., at the intersection of Broadway and Verdugo Road. Those who object to the distance from any certain point should talk with the people of Pasadena who have placed their high school some three miles from the business center. And see what they have. Are they sorry?

Remember, the location I favor would be passed by practically all the automobile traffic to Pasadena from the west as well as that up the beautiful Verdugo Canyon from the south.

Should the people of Glendale choose, however, to retain the present location and continue to build thereon, let us by all means consider well the inadvisability of acquiring the expensive Brand frontage, but rather go toward the east, transferring the athletic field, etc., to the next block and place the new buildings fronting on Colorado. This would be in harmony with the fine Elks' building across the street, of which Glendale is justly proud.

There is soon to be called another mass meeting which should be much more largely attended than was the previous one, and let it be seen to that a complete change of location scheme be placed upon any bond election ballot, together with the other plans so that the people as a whole may have a chance to decide not only whether or not we shall issue more bonds, but also to elect how and where such expenditure shall be made.

STRAINED RELATIONS

TOKIO, Nov. 22.—(By Mail to United Press)—Japanese Consul-General Yada of New York, now in Tokyo on furlough, declared in an interview that America has always suspected Japan's territorial ambitions in China, and America, unlike European countries, does not recognize Japan's paramountcy in China.

The Shantung amendment, as proposed by the Republicans, he said, is no doubt intended for the purpose of vexing President Wilson. "Frankly, the relationship between Japan and America is in considerable danger, and it is urgently necessary that relations between the two be placed on a more sound, friendly basis," he asserted. "Apart from the vapourings of yellow papers there can be no manner of doubt that the feeling of Americans and Japanese is greatly strained."

"A proposal is now afoot to organize a committee, consisting of politicians, business men and representatives of other classes to go to America charged with a mission of restoring friendlier relations between America and Japan by means of speeches and interviews."

MOTHERS' CHRISTMAS BLESSING

From year to year, children are told The story that never grows old. Of the babe born in a manger one night And the Glorious Bethlehem star—light. Of a peace that settled over the earth, Softly, gently, at a little child's birth.

From year to year, the classes voice Their praise expressed, thousands rejoice; For they know how the babe grew to save, To loosen the chains of the bonded slave. And they know of a joy that found expression To give to the world its blessing.

From year to year, man feels A touch of the power that wields The strength of the mother love that shields. From a love that master dreads, Producing ever for the world, Peace on earth, good will unfurled. —Mary Ann Ford.

SIX SHIPS LAUNCHED AT OAKLAND

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 20.—With genuine pre-prohibition champagne dripping from their boys, six great ships will slide down the ways on a single tide December 20 on the Oakland waterfront.

The sextuple launching was to have taken place October 11, when it was planned to have President Wilson press an electric button that would release all six vessels. This was halted by the strike of shipyard workers, and now the belated launching will be in the nature of a celebration of reopening of the Moore Shipbuilding Company's yards.

Three 12,000-ton tankers—the City of Reno, Salina and Sapulpa—and three 9,400-ton freighters—the Jalapa, Mosella and Janelow—are those to be launched. Representatives of the Moore Company, the United States Shipping Board, the Emergency Fleet Corporation, and the state, city and national governments will participate in the launching.

The forest ranger in the San Gabriel Canyon reports that the waters of the creek are almost inky black, says the Ontario Report. If there were a print shop anywhere up the canyon, we'd think it might just be the proprietor washing the office towel in the creek, but the rangers say it's only the rains washing over the burned area of the recent forest fire.

CHRISTMAS SONG

Air: "Ring the Bells of Heaven"

Calm the stars are shining in the azure sky,
Shepherds watching flocks on Bethlehem's plain
Suddenly awaken. "Praise to God on high,"
Angels sang in glad and joyful strain.

CHORUS

"Glory, Glory," was the Angels' song,
"Highest praises to our God belong";
Join our happy voices in the glad refrain:
"Peace on Earth," Messiah's come to reign.

Born amid the lowly, hail the Infant King,
Guiding star led wise men to his stall,
Gladly they adore him, willing subjects bring
Offerings, and call him, "Lord of all."

CHORUS

Angels wondering listen while the children raise
Chorus grand of glad redemption's song;
Hath he not redeemed us and shall not his praise
Be the theme while He our lives prolong?

CHORUS

Sweet the song of Angels on that Christmas night
Heralding the dear Redeemer's birth,
Sweeter, songs of Children, who, with great delight
Sing and send his praises 'round the earth.

CHORUS

—Samuel Parker, Glendale, Cal.

VICTIMS OF THE WAR

Lack of living wages for school teachers of America is nothing short of a national crisis, declared Dr. William T. Foster, president of Reed college, Portland, Oregon.

Dr. Foster, addressing the California State Teachers' convention suggested that the pedagogues form a union, as one way of meeting the "crisis," but he strongly opposed affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, as has been suggested by some of the country's educators.

With the exception of ministers, no other class of workers became "victims of the war" to such an extent as the teachers, the speaker declared. Oother workers, some from sheer necessity, took advantage of the war to double their wages or the prices of their products—carpenters, shoe-makers, farmers, even government clerks, shipbuilders and railroad men.

"Meantime," continued Foster, "virtually all our teachers who were not called by the government for other work, stood by their tasks loyally, uncomplainingly. They did not strike or loaf on the job; they did not picket the school buildings or burn them down; they refrained from shooting their superintendents and school boards."

"As a reward, teachers have had their wages reduced about fifty per cent—that is to say, in purchasing power."

"I am aware that some advocates of a union of teachers with the American Federation of Labor contend that none of these evils are contemplated with the public schools. But whatever is now contemplated, such a union leads to these evils."

"Teachers should have unions as a matter of course; they never have had a national organization worthy of the name. But they should have unions which safeguard rather than endanger the supreme compensations of teaching as a profession."

DISSATISFACTION

The old saying that some folks would find fault if they were going to be hanged is undoubtedly true. There are too many dissatisfied human beings, a minority, to be sure, but enough to shade the picture which portrays our everyday life. Hanging is a serious matter, and no one can wonder if its contemplation causes dissatisfaction to the hero of the occasion, but lesser ills and woes, and common things like wind and weather, lack of money, unpleasant occupations, a crumpled roseleaf in the bed, a wrinkle in some other woman's get up which has escaped her own, turn loose a stream of fault-finding disagreeable and contemptible. We might as well decide that we all have something to bear in this world and that we will bear it without grumbling; we might as well subscribe to the truth that if it is not one thing, it is another, and set our teeth and say nothing. —Caroline Harris Lee.

EDISON COMPANY TO SELL MORE STOCK

By a decision of the Railroad Commission of the State of California the Southern California Edison Company was authorized to sell to its employees an additional 2500 shares of its common stock at the par value of $250,000. Application for this additional amount was made by the company early this month to meet the continuing demands on the part of employees for additional stock.

In August, 1917, the Edison Company introduced the practice of selling stock upon installment payments to employees, and to date employees have purchased approximately $3,000,000 par value stock, in this way becoming profit-sharers. Over 60 per cent of the company's permanent employees are now stockholders and based on the applications being received daily, this percentage will be materially increased.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Charged with the murder of Michael Needham, San Francisco rent car driver, John Helm, 18 years old, of Munich, Ind., former soldier, was to be arraigned before Judge George H. Buck in the Superior Court here today. Needham was slain November 1 on a highway near San Francisco. A blow on the head from behind crushed his skull. After the crime, Helm and two companions, according to statements they made to the police, sped away in Needham's automobile, leaving his body lying alongside the road. Lawrence McCarthy and Gordon Tescher of Lapel, Ind., each 19, will appear in court tomorrow, accused of complicity in the murder.

SAN PEDRO.—Work has started on the first order of 3000 bales of cotton to be put through the new cotton compress erected by the City of Los Angeles here. The compress marks the first step of Los Angeles and San Pedro to become the main shipping point for the cotton output of the Palo Verde and Imperial valleys and for Arizona. The harbor commission has arranged warehouse facilities for handling the cotton. The first shipments from here will go by water to Oakland. The compress now in operation has a capacity of from 750 to 1000 bales every eight hours, using men each eight hour shift.

SAN DIEGO.—Opening of the new San Diego and Arizona Railway, over which regular trains are now operating, has cut the time between San Diego and Chicago by one night's travel. By the old route travelers left San Diego during the night and spent three more nights en route. By the new line trains leave at a convenient hour of the morning and one night is spent en route to El Paso and two more between El Paso and Chicago.

DEL MONTE, Cal., Dec. 23.—Caddies of Del Monte today stage a golf tournament, the first of a series of monthly events. Money prizes go to the six lowest scores. SAN FRANCISCO.—Three prominent Modesto business men probably will learn today whether they will have to pay a fine of $32,000, to which they are liable if Federal Judge Van Fleet here holds them in contempt of court for their alleged assistance in aiding evasion of payment of a federal court judgment. The Modestans are E. C. Peck, president of the First National Bank of Modesto; C. D. Swann, head of the Union Savings Bank of Modesto, and G. V. O'Connor, real estate dealer. The three were cited for contempt of court charged with having helped Mary and Thomas Dillon escape payment of a judgment awarded Norvena and Fred Lineker. Each of the Modestans has testified, denying participation in the alleged conspiracy.

CLUB CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Glendale members of the Los Angeles Friday Morning Club are enthusiastic over the Christmas program given last Friday. It included some very delightful music by Laurence Strauss, who sang French, English and Scotch songs in a manner that greatly pleased his audience. The luncheon tables were appropriately decorated with holly and poinsettias and while the function was in progress the Music Section gave a program described as "The Spirit of Christmas," in which each soloist was costumed to represent a nation and sang the carols of that nation. Mrs. Holman, dressed in red, white and blue, trimmed with silver stars, represented America. At each place was a card on which were printed several of the old familiar English Christmas carols and these the guests united in singing. The president, Mrs. O. Shepard Barnum, ended the program with a very beautiful talk about the Christian part of Christmas and how much better it is than simply a festival. Among those who attended from Glendale were: Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Mrs. Woolsey, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett.

AUTOELECTRIC COMPANY

The Autoelectric Service Company of 306 East Broadway expects to move into its new home at 113 West Harvard Street sometime during the first week in January.

The structure is located on an all of four thousand dollars. Mr. A. S. Knox, manager and proprietor of the Autoelectric Service Company, has made arrangements with the owner, Mr. Richbark of Los Angeles, for a five years' lease on the new building.

Mr. Knox opened up his shop last August for the care and repairing of storage batteries, electric starters, generators, lighting systems, and all electric parts for automobiles. Since that time the business has grown to such an extent that a larger place is necessary. The new home is located in Glendale's automobile row among automobile agents and dealers.

The new home is located on an alley which will allow a side exit as well as front. The building, which is requiring about sixty days to complete, is being built of the popular hollow tile, by Chas. W. Kent & Son.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

The Tropico Presbyterian Church was filled to overflowing Sunday night by an appreciative audience which came out to enjoy a Christmas Cantata given by the choir with the assistance of the choir of the Normandy Avenue Methodist church. Local vocalists took the solo parts the list of singers including Misses Ruth Rider, Ethel Shoull and Nancy Sinclair, Mrs. Richardson, Messrs. Harwood and Rosenberger. Besides the solo numbers there were quartettes and the chorus work was particularly good.

SERVICE MEN'S DANCE

At the service men's dance Saturday night, the same orchestra which played at the previous dance furnished music this time and needless to say it was good music. About 60 couples took possession of the floor and spent a gay evening. A goodly sum was realized for club furnishings.

The supreme court ruling on wartime prohibition did not affect the name of the Sheriff of El Centro, whose moniker is Applestill.

"God is love." When challenged for combining an unchangeable truth with a variable object, he explained that he wished to emphasize the fact that no matter which way the wind blows, God is love.

"Mankind in general has misinterpreted and misrepresented the character of God. By their lives, men have said God is not love, but a tyrant whose wrath must be appeased by sacrifice and offerings. By precept and example this conception has gone to the ends of the world. God's way is not to terrorize into obedience by threats of eternal torment; but to show the results of both the right and the wrong way, and win, not force, to obedience.

"Since the author of salvation does not use force to bring men to salvation, His followers can rightly represent Him only when they follow His example.

"Christians are to show by their lives that God is love; in the home, the church, and the community this is their work. To misinterpret God's character is to drive others from, instead of to Him. Compelling power is found only under Satan's government."

GIVES DEMONSTRATION

The initial winter rains. In order to prevent the spread of this disease of peach trees, Mr. Hodgson recommended the spraying of trees be done before the first of each year. This disease is easily detected by drops of gum on the trees. According to Mr. Hodgson, the spotted apricots, which some farmers have thought natural, is but an indication of the presence of shot hole.

The best time to spray trees is in the first months of winter and again when the buds are opening, a weaker solution being used for the second application. The best spraying substance to use is either bordeaux solution of lime and sulphur. Either one, or both, or alternating the two is desirable and will bring the preferred results.

Spraying of trees dates back some twenty-five years, but only in the last six to eight years has it been a noticeable success. This is probably due to the fact that growers are realizing that spraying is essential for successful crops. One mistake often made is the spraying of a tree from but one side. Trees should be sprayed on all sides.

T. M. Cock, representing a company that manufactures lime and sulphur for spraying, next spoke. His first point concerned the use of liquid lime and sulphur. He explained ed the costliness of shipping liquid and the excessive space which it requires. In contrast to this he showed the advantage of using lime and sulphur which has been reduced to a powder. Two pounds of powder are equal to one gallon of liquid. Mr. Cock explained that fifty pounds of the dry equals between six and seven hundred pounds of liquid lime and sulphur.

Vernon Edler, representing a spray pump company, explained the rig used to throw the liquid preparation on the trees. The apparatus used was valued at slightly more than six hundred dollars, including the extra accessories and equipment used.

After these talks the spray machine, drawn by two horses, was taken into Mr. Radcliff's peach orchard and a demonstration was given. About twenty trees were sprayed in fifteen to twenty minutes of spraying by two men. The cost of spraying, including the cost of materials, time, etc., amounts to from six to eight cents for each tree. Hence, an acre of one hundred trees would cost between six and eight dollars to be sprayed. As an insurance this is well worth the money.

TO EXTERMINATE GRASSHOP-PERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—(United Press).—Candido Castro, a young Filipino engineer, has offered to Governor Harrison of the Philippines an invention which, if successful, spells doom to billions of grasshoppers that destroy rice fields on the islands.

Castro claims he can exterminate every full grown grasshopper in the Philippines in three months. By scoop nets attached to airplanes he will be able, he says, to capture about a billion five-inch grasshoppers each time his invention dashes into a flock of insects. The captive hoppers, he points out, would fertilize hundreds of island gardens.

Three planes carrying the nets would accomplish the task, says Castro.

Long Beach is full of Iowans, and they in turn are full of indignation because a stray Missourian down there claims for his state the largest ear of corn grown this year. Iowans concede to Missourians that they can grow the largest ears of mules, but not the largest ears of corn.

Half a ton California poppy seed is being sown on the vacant spots in and near Avalon, over on Catalina Island, and in time the tight little chewing gum island hopes to reap at least fifty tons of publicity from it.

REVELATIONS OF CARRANZA POLICY

BLUE BOOK OF MEXICO CONTAINS INFORMATION RELATIVE TO ORDERS TO ARMY OFFICIALS

LAREDO, Tex., Dec. 23.—(Copyright by United Press.)—(By Sam Freed.)—The blue book of Mexico, a copy of which is just available reveals moves by Carranza against the United States. The book contains notes on confidential messages designed for circulation among foreign governments, especially Latin-American governments. It also reveals that following Villa's raid on Columbus, New Mexico, Carranza wrote General Diezuez saying there was danger of American invasion and instructing him to be ready to destroy all lines to Nogales, also to Naco and Aguacricco. At the same time Carranza wired to General Millan at Vera Cruz directing him to resist any attempts made by American marines to land. When General Obregon and General Scott were negotiating, following the Columbus raid, Carranza wired to Obregon to tell Scott that Mexico would resist any crossing of the border unless provided for in a specific treaty.

ELECTRICITY IN THE HOME

Women long ago realized that running a household was an art. Later they were taught to consider it a science—witness the schools of domestic science. Now it has become a business and the thinking class is looking for ways and means to increase efficiency and decrease labor in every activity.

There is one general and positive medium of labor saving in the home—electricity. When women understand it, they will eliminate the drudgery and hard work of the home with economy.

Few women at the present time really know the use and economy of electrical table appliances. With these articles they can prepare the breakfast and the noon-day lunch with ease and with great saving in the cost of fuel. The service they will find satisfactory and saving of steps. There is no running to the kitchen.

There are the labor saving devices such as the washing machine, dishwasher, iron, mangle and vacuum cleaner. There is the boudoir set with its curling iron, massager and everything the woman might require. There is the electric shaving mug and other apparatus that the man wishes for his toilet. There is the electric heater to take the chill off the room, the electric milk warmer for the baby, the electric warming pad for the sick room. In fact practically everything that is to do with the home has been electrified in some measure and life made easier, more beautiful and more comfortable.

COMPANY PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEAD HORSE

ROCKFORD, Ill.—"White, clean through," was the caption of a unique ad which a Rockford dairy company ran in a local paper, certifying to the record of a horse that had died after being "in the employ" of the concern for twenty years. The unusual memorial was a public tribute to the faithfulness of the equine. The owner claimed that the horse was as familiar with the delivery routes as the drivers and its faithfulness and value to the company was so pronounced that the public tribute was decided upon.

The Santa Barbara Morning Press tells of a negro burglar in durance there who has varied tastes. He broke into a home there and stole eight bottles of gin, five pairs of trousers, a camera and a watch. When captured he remembered where he had everything except the gin.

A Los Angeles man who had lived with his wife for twenty-three years secured a divorce from her the other day because she had discovered, in a new philosophy she was studying, that his vibrations didn't harmonize with hers. What that kind of a woman needed was not a mate with harmonious vibrations, but a mate with a good wallop.
